The following information is important for former students re-enrolling.
Take time to read the topics carefully.

All sections of application must be filled out completely. If a section is not complete, the application will be returned to you. This will delay the processing of the application.

Change of Major. Former students are re-admitted into the major they were in when they last attended Clemson. You can initiate a change-of-major by picking up a form in the Enrolled Student Services Office, 104 Sikes Hall (864.656.2174).

Catalog Curriculum. Former students must meet the catalog curriculum requirements for graduation in effect at the time of their return. Students are required to satisfy the University's general education requirements in addition to curricular requirements. The course substitution procedure will be used for approval of any variation in curricular or general education requirements.

Transcripts. If you have attended another school since leaving Clemson, and wish to transfer the hours, you should request a complete, official transcript be sent to the attention of Mrs. Debra Kelley, 102 Sikes Hall, Clemson University, Clemson, SC 29634-5125. After the transcript is received, an evaluation form will be printed and given to the counselors in the Enrolled Student Services Office, 104 Sikes Hall. You must contact your counselor to complete the evaluation process.

Housing. Campus housing information can be obtained by contacting the Housing Office, Mell Hall, Clemson University, Clemson, SC 29634 (864.656.2295).

Legal Residence. If the status of an applicant is such that S. C. residence and domicile is not clearly apparent, a residence claim will require substantiation. See Web site: www.clemson.edu/SCResident for residency laws and forms or contact the Financial Aid Office, G-01 Sikes Hall, (864.656.2282). The deadline for receipt of this application is two weeks prior to the term in which you plan to re-enroll.

Name Change. If your name has changed since you last attended Clemson, a copy of your marriage license, divorce papers, or court order must be provided before your application can be processed or your name changed on your records.

Advance Registration and Payment. Once students are accepted for the fall, spring, or summer term they are encouraged to enroll in courses and pay fees well in advance of the beginning of classes. The schedule of classes explains enrollment options and deadline dates. Advance bills are mailed for each term, and students also can learn their fees by calling the interactive voice response system (864.656.8447) after registering for one or more courses. See Web site: www.registrar.clemson.edu for more information on registration and payment.

Outstanding Balance. Your registration will be blocked if you have an outstanding balance with the University. Contact University Revenue and Receivables (864.656.5592).

Disability Services. Information can be obtained by calling 864.656.6848.
