The following information is important for former students re-enrolling. Take time to read carefully. All sections of the application must be filled out completely. If a section is not complete, the application will be returned to you. This will delay the processing of the application.

Policy: Former graduate students who have not maintained continuous enrollment (summers excluded) but who are academically eligible to continue in the degree programs in which they were most recently enrolled, may be permitted to return into the degree and major they were in when they last attended Clemson University Graduate School. No fee is required for re-entrance into the Graduate School.

RE-ENTRANCE

NONDEGREE

Re-entrance as a non-degree-seeking student is restricted to those who have previously submitted a non-degree graduate application and have enrolled as a non-degree student. It is intended for those who may benefit professionally from additional study at the graduate level. A re-entrance form is required if the student has not maintained continuous enrollment (summers excluded) after the initial non-degree application has been submitted and coursework taken. Non-degree students may not be candidates for advanced degrees and may not receive financial assistance. Should the student subsequently be admitted to a degree program, a maximum of 12 semester hours of graduate credit (non-degree and/or transfer) may be applied toward the degree. This classification is not open to international students.

Students who were not enrolled as a non-degree seeking student within the past six years are considered new applicants and must submit a new application, application fee, and all supporting materials to the Office of Graduate Admissions, E-209 Martin Hall.

DEGREE

Former graduate students who have not maintained continuous enrollment (summers excluded), but who are eligible to continue in the degree programs in which they were most recently enrolled, may be permitted to return.

Students who were not enrolled within the past six years are considered new applicants and must submit a new application, application fee, and all supporting materials to the Office of Graduate Admissions, E-209 Martin Hall.

Students who have earned a graduate degree from Clemson and wish to pursue another graduate degree must apply through the Office of Graduate Admissions, E-209 Martin Hall.

Former graduate students who wish to return to pursue an undergraduate degree should contact the Registrar's Office, 102 Sikes Hall, for procedures.

TRANSCRIPTS

If you have attended another school since leaving Clemson, and wish to transfer the hours, you should request a complete, official transcript be sent to the Office of Enrolled Student Services, 104D Sikes Hall.

LEGAL RESIDENCE

If the status of an applicant is such that South Carolina residence and domicile is not clearly apparent, a residence claim will require substantiation. Residency laws and forms are available at www.clemson.edu/SCResident or by contacting the Office of Student Financial Aid, G-01 Sikes Hall, 864-656-2282. The application must be received two weeks prior to the term in which you plan to re-enroll.

NAME CHANGE

If your name has changed since you last attended Clemson, you must provide a copy of your marriage license, divorce papers, or court order before your application can be processed or your name changed on your records. You may access the name change form at www.registrar.clemson.edu/pdf/namechg.pdf.

ADVANCE REGISTRATION AND PAYMENT

Once students are accepted for the fall, spring, or summer term, they are encouraged to enroll in courses and pay fees well in advance of the beginning of classes.

DEPARTMENT SIGNATURE

This form must be approved by the graduate program coordinator or the department chair and recorded in the Office of Enrolled Student Services, 104D Sikes Hall, before you may enroll in graduate courses.
